NATAL CHART ANALYSIS

INTRODUCTION

A major cosmic law called “The Law of Correspondences” is expressed by the phrase “As above, so below”. As the structure of the atom corresponds with that of the universe, so the cosmic events correspond with what happens in people’s lives on earth.

There is a common misconception amongst the general public that the movement of the planets somehow influence events in people’s lives. This is simply not so. There is no causal link between planetary positions and life situations. Astrologers do not see the stars as causing particular life situations or affecting them in any way. Rather, we see planetary and earthly events happening simultaneously, each event reflecting the other, just like the smallest particle in our universe, the atom, reflects the largest system in our universe, the planetary system. In other words, the movements of the planets and our lives are part of the same grand cosmic play.

It could be that some of the aspects of this analysis would appear to be contradictory. This is so because different aspects of the personality and indeed, life in general, appear to display seemingly incompatible characteristics on the surface. It is important to note the part of the personality that is being addressed and see it in context of the whole complex personality. For instance, one can appear to have a great amount of confidence through a fire Ascendant, but inwardly feel very timid if one has a badly aspected sun. It is up to the individual to decide which part of the personality to focus on to overcome the given obstacles.

An astrological chart can be seen as a toolbox, the different planets being the tools. If one takes ownership of one's own "tools", then one is free to use them in any which way one chooses: to harm or to heal, to emphasize or to de-emphasize, to use one to compensate for another, etc. If for instance, one has a very forceful approach or image and comes across as insensitive (Aries Ascendant), but a very receptive emotional nature (Moon in Pisces), then one could make the choice to be more focussed on one's natural internal empathetic feelings towards others if the situation calls for it.

I hope that your chart interpretation will give you deeper insight into your personality in order to become a more integrated human being and help you maximize your potential.

CHART POINTS: Planets and other points of interest

Note: When an aspect is applying, the character trait will become more salient in your life time, when it is separating, the character trait will become less salient.

THE LUMINARIES: Sun and Moon

The Moon

The Moon represents our inner child, our intuitive and instinctual nature. When we are young children we often display our Moon sign more than our Sun sign. For that reason astrologers say that we start this life's journey in the Moon position, as it is unlearned and innate, and become more and more of our Sun Sign, as that represents the task that we have elected to achieve in this life.

The Moon in Pisces

You feel emotions deeply and sometimes get lost in them, feeling that you are submersed in a sea of emotions. When you feel stressed, you might seek seclusion so as to avoid the turmoil that you see outside of you. You like to escape from the real world into a fantasy world that you have carefully constructed with your very fertile imagination. You like to dream and you dream often and big. You have perfected daydreaming into a fine art! Unless you have strong Earth in your chart, you run the danger of becoming ungrounded and float through your life, never quite managing to be constructive. You are very empathetic towards other people and because you feel others' feelings as if they were your own, you often can't distinguish between your own feelings and theirs. You need to learn to keep emotional boundaries, so that you don't get swamped by others needs. Because you are so sensitive to the vibrations that surround you, you have a strong psychic ability.

The Moon in the Eleventh House

You will feel safe and nurtured when with friends or groups of people and can get emotionally attached to friends. You may find that working for humanitarian causes fulfil a deep emotional need within you. Social status does not mean anything to you and you will find that you will get along just as well with a homeless person as with a person that is the CEO of a large group of companies.

You love networking and find it easy to fraternise with all sorts of people. Your emotional nature might be very individualistic and independent.

Aspects of the Moon

Quincunx Jupiter (Orb 0°35' Separating)

You tend to spread yourself too thin and need to adjust the amount of time you spend chasing rainbows, adding a dollop of reality checking to any new venture.

Opposition Uranus (Orb 1°25' Separating)

You find yourself in emotional turmoil often because your emotions are erratic and it feels like they have the power to sweep you away. Conflict arises in your life because you try to hold on to your individuality at all costs and can thus become rebellious and wilful. You might have learnt that emotions were changeable and therefore not to be trusted, from your mother. As an adult you experience conflict as you see-saw between the intellect and the emotions. You need to learn to trust the unique realm of feelings and that it can be balanced with intellect.

Trine Neptune (Orb 0°43' Separating)

You are a highly creative person and will find an emotional outlet in film, art or dance. You have an unusually high level of sensitivity to other people's feelings and it is easy for you to be "in tune" with another person or animal. You need to make sure that you do not idealise other people as you are prone to only seeing the good in others.

Conjunction Chiron (Orb 7°10' Applying)

You are caring and empathetic towards other people. You might have suffered rejection by somebody that was supposed to nurture you. This could have been your mother. In adult life you are good at looking after your loved ones. Just make sure that this is not at your own expense, as you also need loving care.

The Sun

As the Moon represents our inner child, so the Sun represents our inner adult. The Sun is the god-spark in us all and when we look at the astrological placing of the Sun, we are informed of what “flavour” our particular god essence is. It also tells us about our general health and vitality.

The Sun in Taurus

On the up side you are reliable and a solid individual, on the down side, you could be stubborn and inert. Like the bull, it takes quite a concerted effort to get you going, but once you gather the momentum, there is no stopping you! Beware of landing in the path of the raging bull! You are straight down the line and honest and expect the same from others. No bullshit bull! Security is very important to you. In fact, money and financial security can rule your life! It is very important to you to be able to provide for your family and make sure that there is enough left over for tomorrow. You like luxury, sensual objects and the finer things in life. You are practical and believe that seeing is believing. Better still- only believe what you can touch, see, feel, hear and taste! Food is big for you. Beware of indulging in those fine senses so much that you put on weight!

The Sun in the Twelfth House

Your sense of identity has always remained a bit of a mystery, even to yourself. Even so, you place far more emphasis on the importance of your inner life than your outer life. Introspection and self-analysis is very important to you. This will become more and more apparent as you grow older. You need a time away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life to recharge your batteries. This seclusion is a great personal resource for you, where you gain a lot of personal strength, ready to face the world. You might experience a lack of boundaries between yourself and others, particularly in crowds. You also experience a deeply-felt connection with the suffering of the masses.

Aspects of the Sun

Conjunction Mercury (Orb 0°58' Applying)

It is difficult for you to depersonalise your thought and thus you might think that you “are” your thoughts, in stead of just having thoughts. You enjoy intellectual stimulation, and look for avenues through which to communicate your ideas.

THE PERSONAL PLANETS: Mercury, Venus and Mars

Mercury

Mercury in Taurus

You hold traditional knowledge in high regard, but might resist learning new things. Your learning style is slow, methodical, practical and hands-on. You mostly like to work out what it is that you have to say before you say it. You can be very sincere, but also serious. When it comes to talking you shoot straight from the hip and expect others to do the same. You don't suffer fools lightly and you don't like people that don't talk straight!!

Mercury in the Twelfth House

Your own thoughts are not always clear to you. You are also very susceptible to the thoughts and feelings of others and because of this will have psychic tendencies. In large groups of people you might get confused because of the porousness of your thought processes. You have a strong imagination, and the ability to be a spokesperson for the masses.

Venus

Venus in Aries

You are impulsive when it comes to relationships and may start one on a whim, or fall in love at the drop of a hat. You like to be the hunter when pursuing a potential love interest, but yet strive for freedom and independence once you have established an intimate relationship. You like to be the initiator in relationships, and can be aggressive. Be careful that your lust does not overcome your love! Excitement and passion is the name of the game when it comes to relationships. You also like to spend, spend, spend. You need to learn caution when it comes to finance.

Venus in the Twelfth House

You have a love of abandoning yourself to the unknown. You might idealise the perfect relationship and always strive towards that state of perfection, not seeing the beauty in the present relationship. Only those very close to you have a hint of what you value in life and how you conduct your close relationships. Sometimes you like to keep your romantic relationships secret. For this reason this astrological combination may lead you into clandestine love affairs. Unless you are very careful and use discrimination, this might ruin your reputation.

Aspects of Venus

Trine Jupiter Orb 7°00' Applying

You possess a great amount of social charm and have a talent for putting other people at their ease. Your natural enthusiasm is contagious. Your optimistic schemes have a habit of paying off, even if others think that they are hare-brained!

Conjunction Saturn Orb 1°21' Separating

You feel that your personal relationships are somewhat restrained, although the better you get to know people and they you, the better you are able to build solid relationships. Initially you could be shy, but as you get to know people, you warm up. You might fear commitment and as a result need to either control the relationship, or be controlled in order to feel secure. Once you commit, you are a very reliable, solid partner that can be called on in any situation. Your attitude to relationships and money can be very serious and duty-bound. You are faithful and loyal.

Quincunx Pluto Orb 1°18' Separating

Personal relationships can be intense and stressful. You need to learn to choose the middle way and move away from tending to the extremes.

Conjunction the North Node Orb 1°29' Separating

Your destiny is strongly influence by the nature of the relationships that you build with other people. Without achieving the goal of harmonious relationships, your destiny will be unfulfilled.

Even so, you must not relinquish your sense of fairness just for the sake of keeping the peace. Learn to have your say, speak your inner truth.

Mars

Mars in Taurus

Your drive and ambition can be persistent, if you overcome your natural inertia. You are methodical and practical in pursuing your goals, which are normally directed to attaining material wealth and financial security. If you are opposed in your chosen course of action you can be stubborn and even bull-headed! The sexual nature is very sensual.

Mars in the Twelfth House

You are not always sure of the strength of your personal power and might feel as if you don't possess any or as if there is no sense of direction. It is important for you to find creative outlets for your energy so that it does not become self-destructive. You can be a good strategist and tend to keep your own plans under wraps.

Aspects of Mars

Trine Uranus Orb 5°54' Applying

You have naturally high energy levels, but these are not consistent. It would be wise to make hay while the sun shines and use the energy when it is there. You have great, possibly even revolutionary, insight, which makes you a force to be reckoned with in many different fields. You can assert yourself very well and need to find an appropriate platform where your particular genius will be appreciated.

Opposition Neptune Orb 6°16' Applying

Be careful that your daydreaming doesn't restrict your practical output. Sometimes you will find yourself doing what you do not really want to do. You need to learn how to make your dreams reality in a practical way, as you can dream the dreams, but have a hard time going over into action. Build a bridge between creative thoughts and action.

Trine Pluto Orb 0°36' Separating

You have a high energy level and the ability to revolutionize anything you but your mind to. You can take anything and turn it into something completely different. People might not always like the way you transform things and you meet some resistance. Some might thank you later!

THE TRANS-PERSONAL PLANETS: Jupiter and Saturn

Jupiter

Jupiter in Leo

You love having fun in a playful, if theatrical way. You are generous, magnanimous, outgoing and enthusiastic. You love being creative and like to put your fun ideas into practice with an audience, especially children. You love animals and have a special bond with them. Your philosophies are grand and warm hearted.

Jupiter in the Fourth House

You like having a big house and a large family. Your home is a place where there is always something going on. Perhaps you travelled with your family as a child, or you like to travel with your own family as an adult. You have strong philosophical views on family life and like to stimulate debate in your family. You like to think that your home is a place where all different views have their place in the sun.

Aspects of Jupiter

Square Neptune Orb 0°08' Separating

You have an artistic side, but unless you learn to discipline yourself, it will come to naught. You need to learn to be more grounded and more realistic and practical about what is achievable. You need strong guidance when it comes to handling money, as you like to spend more than to save!

Saturn

Saturn in Aries

Your greatest lesson in life would be to learn patience. You are capable of reworking old or traditional methods and adding new ideas to them to make them work better and more practically applicable. You are good at initiating and pioneering practical solutions to old problems. These will pay off if you can learn to see things through and not leave the job half done.

Saturn in the Twelfth House

You live with some unconscious fears that impact on your behaviour. You might hide how you really feel to keep up appearances. You might feel intimidated or hypersensitive. Sometimes you want to isolate yourself, so that you don't need to share your feelings with others. You need to learn to see the lighter side of life and gain confidence. This can only be done by self exploration and gaining self knowledge. You will fear anything hidden, but the most important thing that is hidden is you! Explore yourself and learn where your boundaries lie. In the journey of self discovery you will learn that there is nothing to fear at all! Oh, and don't forget to add a touch of humour!

Aspects of Saturn

Quincunx Pluto Orb 0°02' Applying

You might experience power struggles in your professional life with people in high positions. You need to learn that true personal power comes from self acceptance and self knowledge.

Conjunction the North Node Orb 2°26' Applying

You will be challenged in the course of your life to take charge of groups of people in which you have to assume responsibility. The achievement of your goals can be done successfully in the context of large organisations.

THE OUTER PLANETS: Uranus, Neptune, Pluto

Uranus

Uranus in Virgo

(1962 - 1968) It is important to note that Uranus spends a long time in each sign, and therefore the interpretation applies to a generation rather than you as an individual. The house position will give a more individual interpretation. In this generation people are starting to look at how to serve humanity in practical ways. Medical research, the balance between work and leisure, the links between mind and body come into focus.

Uranus in the Fifth House

You have original and individualistic ways of spending your leisure time and have unconventional ways of being creative. Your children may be original, unconventional and inventive.

Aspects of Uranus

Sextile Neptune Orb 0°01' Separating

Your generation has a chance to bring about social change by employing spiritual principles and implementing them. You work outside the normal government channels to achieve these changes.

Neptune

Neptune in Scorpio

(1955/57 - 1970) It is important to note that Neptune takes about 164 years to make a complete cycle, spending about thirteen years in each sign. Therefore the interpretation of Neptune in the Sign applies to a generation rather than the individual. The house position will give a more individual interpretation. This generation has the ability to passionately pursue spiritual values. They face a battle between their nature with strong sensual desires and a spiritual way of life. They will know of the value of regeneration rather than stagnation. This generation may play a transformative or revolutionary role in the world.

Neptune in the Sixth House

You may have difficulty coping with everyday life, as you resist routine and discipline. You can easily float along! Your health might not be the best, so take care of it. You also feel the need to be of service to others and will do this selflessly.

Aspects of Neptune

Trine Chiron Orb 5°20' Separating

You are empathic and have a gift for understanding people and lending a caring hand in their times of troubles. Your sensitive and accepting nature encourages people to tell you of their inner pain. Because you have experience of this, you know exactly how they feel. You may be drawn to the spiritual side of life.

Pluto

Pluto in Virgo

(1957 - 1972) It is important to note that Pluto takes about 248 years to make a complete cycle, spending 12 to 32 years in each sign. Therefore the interpretation of Pluto in its sign applies to a generation rather than the individual. The house position will give a more individual interpretation. This generation possesses the ability to transform the way the world sees health. Medical research, world-wide diseases, medical discoveries, and the links between mind and body will be focuses for this generation.

Pluto in the Fifth House

You have a powerful need to express yourself creatively and be recognised for it, but beware of an obsessive need for attention. Check yourself around children and don't be too overpowering in their presence. A light touch is needed.
